

Welcome to the Neighborhood

Hershey, PA

Hershey, Pennsylvania

A one-of-a-kind work/life destination

In 1905, Milton S. Hershey didn't just build a town. He built a community.

For more than a century, Hershey's residents and businesses have enjoyed the area's small-town feel alongside an array of amenities typically found only in larger metropolitan areas (Why, yes, we do have a zoo!). Our community is defined by diversity, prosperity, and a high standard of living.

Situated in the rolling hills of Central Pennsylvania's countryside, Hershey is a well-known travel destination that attracts hundreds of thousands of tourists each year. But it's the area's full-time residents who appreciate the town's true value.

Award-winning health care, a top-notch school system, a thriving downtown, and an enviable cultural scene are just part of what makes Hershey a desirable place to work and live. The real attraction—the part that brings people here and keeps them here—is that Hershey is a place where good things happen. It is, after all, "The Sweetest Place On Earth."[®]

Today, the town of Hershey remains committed to its founder's legacy of health, education, and cultural opportunities. Guided by innovative leaders and grounded by engaged community members, Hershey and its neighboring communities offer a quality of life that's second to none.

We are proud to live and work in Hershey, and we think you will be, too. We're so excited to welcome you and know you'll be glad you chose to call Hershey your home.
